Disclaimer

We have designed this website as a service to our visitors in general and to our customers in particular. Our website is made available under the following terms and conditions.

Information

We make every effort to ensure that the information on this is as accurate and up to date as possible. We reserve the right to change the content of the information on this website.

If, despite our efforts, the information contains inaccuracies or is no longer up to date, we are not liable for any malfunctions or interruptions, or errors or delays in the provision of information.

If we send you incomplete or incorrect communication and we inform you of this afterwards, no rights can be derived from this.

Technical

We never guarantee the complete, unrestricted and uninterrupted functioning, whether as a result of external causes, such as, but not limited to, a cyber-attack in any form whatsoever or a disruption in internet traffic or any other cause.

We do not guarantee that the security measures we have taken will be effective under all circumstances. Despite the great care and measures we take, we can never rule out fraud, hacking or theft. We are not liable in such cases.

We do not guarantee that emails or other electronic messages will be received and processed in a timely manner. We are not liable for the consequences of their non-receipt or late receipt or processing.

Intellectual property rights

This website contains several elements that are subject to intellectual property rights belonging to us and third parties, such as: drawings, photographs, texts and the graphic design of the pages in general. In addition, this website provides access to databases that have been compiled at considerable expense. To protect our interests and those of third parties, the following restrictions apply to the use of this website and our services

- It is not permitted to publish or reproduce in any way copyright-protected works or other information, images or documents stored on the website without our express written permission. This also includes the reproduction of information and/or parts thereof through online or offline publication.
- It is not permitted to copy parts of this website electronically or otherwise, except to the extent necessary to consult this website efficiently via the internet and to use the services offered on it.
- It is permitted to create hyperlinks to this website, provided that the link is to the main page thesharinggroup.com. We expressly reserve the right to object to so-called "deep links" directly to certain parts of our website.
- It is not permitted to set up a hyperlink to this website in such a way that an internet user sees the website in a frame of another internet page.

Use of cookies

Cookies are small pieces of information (files) that a website stores on your device (computer, mobile phone, tablet, etc.). There are two types of cookies. Session cookies are deleted from your device as soon as you leave or close the website. Permanent cookies remain on your device, even after you leave or close the website. For more information, please refer to our privacy policy.

You can always refuse or delete cookies. To do so, you can set your web browser to refuse or delete all cookies or only certain cookies, or you can clear your (app) cache. If you refuse cookies, certain parts of the website may no longer work (optimally) for you.

Fair use

It is not permitted to use this website in a manner that could hinder other visitors or users or otherwise affect the proper functioning of this website, the information presented on it and/or the underlying software.

Furthermore, it is not permitted to use the website under a false name or by circumventing security measures of closed parts of the website.

Links to third-party websites

This website may contain references or hyperlinks to websites that are outside our mymundo domain. Different terms and conditions may apply to these third-party websites. We are not responsible and/or liable for the content of these third-party websites.
